

You are invited to

SCMA's Marine Education Conference, Annual Meeting & Holiday Party

PRESERVING WORKING WATERFRONTS & WATERWAYS

Tuesday, November 30, 2010
Charleston Marriott Hotel

AGENDA

- 7:30 a.m. Continental Breakfast
- 8:30 a.m. Welcome
- 8:45 a.m. Amy W. Larson, Esq., President, National Waterways Conference: Congressional & Administration policy proposals that impact water resources, including navigation – commercial and recreation -- and focusing on adequate funding for harbors and ports, including dredging, as well as ways to change how the Corps of Engineers conducts project studies.
- 9:30 a.m. Jennifer Literal, Policy Director, Island Institute: Programs around the US to preserve working waterfronts, including a possible national coalition and the potential for federal funding.
- 10:15 a.m. Break
- 10:30 a.m. SC Sea Grant: An overview of what Sea Grant does; news on the South Atlantic Governors Alliance working together on action plans on coastal issues; update on the marine debris initiatives.
- 11:15 a.m. Duke Energy and/or SCANA/SCE&G: Inland lake issues and how terms may be changing.
- 12 :00 Summary of morning discussions
- 12:30 p.m. Lunch
- 1:15 p.m. Burnet R. Maybank, III, Nexsen Pruet: SC Dept. of Revenue's interpretation of how sales taxes apply to extended warranty & service contracts; Update on the Property Tax Realignment Commission.
- 2:15 p.m.  Boat Builders Roundtable: Issues that affect all marine businesses including the US Dept. of Labor's interpretation of Longshore Workman's Comp issues
- 3:00 p.m. Scott Meister, SCDNR: Update on the Clean Vessel Act and other DNR issues.
- 3:30 p.m. Break
- 3:45 p.m. Curtis Joyner, SCDHEC-OCRM: Update on the Clean Marina program; Clean Marina Certificate presentation.

4:15 p.m. SCMA Annual Meeting – Bob Pilcher, SCMA President
Report on 2010 Events & Achievements
Treasurer’s Report – Rion Salley
Legislative Report – Wayne Beam
Nominations & Elections of New Board Members

5:30 p.m.- HOLIDAY COCKTAIL PARTY
7:30 p.m.

*Not confirmed yet