Knot 10 Yacht Sales announces its expansion into the New England market.

Newport, Rhode Island (11/18/2010) – Knot 10 Yacht Sales announced today the expansion of their brokerage sales into the New England region.

With Knot 10's entry into the New England market owners of power and sailing yachts will now have a fresh choice when deciding who will represent them in the sale of their boat. Knot 10 has grown to be the largest brokerage in the Mid-Atlantic region by offering their sellers a 7% commission rate versus higher industry standards. This unique commission is combined with unrivaled customer service, professional photography and extensive marketing. "With our saturation of advertisements both nationally and regionally we receive numerous calls from virtually every state as well as, international interest in our listings. We are thrilled to bring an experienced sales team into New England to offer personalized service to our growing customer base," stated Judy Benvenuto of Knot 10 Yacht Sales.

The region will be headed up by sales veteran Rich Feinen. Rich not only has a strong sales background but possesses knowledge of boat design, particularly down east style yachts which will be of great benefit throughout the northern market. Prior to joining Knot 10, Rich was a partner in Chauncey Creek Boats.

He headed up sales and marketing of the custom yachts and travelled from the north shore of Boston to Cape Cod, MV, Nantucket, Newport and Montauk. Over the next several months Knot 10 will begin representing their New England clients at industry boat shows, on the web and in print publications. Additional information regarding office locations will be forthcoming. For immediate information on selling or buying a boat with Knot 10 Yacht Sales contact Rich Feinen @ (978) 660-1213, Headquarters (410) 827-9090.
